SCHOOL REPORT.

District No. 2, E. J. Durgin, Teacher, Improvement, excellent.

A. S. Jewett, Teacher, Improvement successful.

District No. 3, C. F. Bemis, Teacher, Improvement Remarkable.

Intervale. E. S. Jewett, Teacher, School small but successful.

L. M. Osgood, Teacher, Fair school.

District No. 6, May Salvage, Teacher, Closed quite unexpectedly. I have heard that it was quite successful.

The second term of 10 weeks which May Salvare taught 3 weeks. Irregularity of attendance together with some other causes hindered the success of the second temr.

A. S. Jewett finished the term with a successful school.

District No. 6.

At the beginning of the second term outside influences were found to be at work which practically destroyed the school. The skill and energy of the teacher of the second term held these forces of evil in check, but a determined public opinion is needed to extricate them.

Interest in schools by parents and all friends of education is to be commended. Sometimes, however, this interest takes the unfortunate form of opposition to certain teachers on the enforcement of proper discipline. In a school nothing can be more destructive to it's welfare than such an interest. Parents should honor the teacher and defend him from aspersion.

When the unpleasant duty of enforcing discipline falls to the lot of a teacher he or she should have the public sympathy and support.

OSCAR L. MOODY,
SCHOOL COMMITTEE.
